~~~ End of Standing Resolutions ~~~

SECTION 1 - PRELIMINARY

1.1 INTRODUCTION

Rover Scouts are self managing.

These Standing Resolutions detail the Rules of Management for the Rover Scout Section in South Australia.

1.2 AUTHORITY

The Rover Scout Section and the Branch Rover Council in South Australia exist and operate within the structure of Scouts SA. Rovers are bound to the governance policies and procedures of the Scout Association of Australia and those of the SA Branch. Nothing within these Standing Resolutions may override such policies and procedures and where these Standing Resolutions are silent on any matter, direction must be taken from those documents that bind Scouting within Australia.

1.3 PARAMOUNT LAWS AND RULES

Nothing in these Standing Resolutions shall derogate from anything contained in any Royal Charter, Act of Parliament or any subsidiary legislation.

1.4 NAME

The name of the managing body of the Rover Scout Section within Scouts SA is the South Australian Branch Rover Council and is referred to as BRC.

1.5 INTERPRETATION

Unless the contrary intention appears herein, the following words or phrases have or include, as the case may be, the corresponding meaning shown:

"Scouts Australia" - means The Scout Association of Australia

"Scouts SA" - means The Scout Association of Australia (SA Branch)

"SA Rover Scout Section" - means the Rover Scout Section within Scouts SA

"The Council", "BRC" - means the South Australian Branch Rover Council, as defined herein.

"The Executive" - means the Executive Committee of the SA Branch Rover Council.

"Unit" and "Unit Leader" - means Rover Unit and Rover Unit Leader respectively.

In these Resolutions, unless inconsistent with the context, words indicating masculine gender shall include feminine gender, words in the singular shall include the plural and Resolutions shall apply to a Rover Unit as much as an individual and vice versa.

1.6 PURPOSE & AIMS

- a. The Purpose of the SA Rover Scout Section is: to help the transition from adolescence to adulthood and support young adults, young persons, in the final phase of their integration into adult society.
- b. The Aims of the SA Rover Scout Section are to:
 - i. Provide young adults with opportunities to undertake their development through the areas of personal growth, which Scouting recognises: physical, intellectual, emotional, social, spiritual growth which leads to character development.

- ii. Give young adults the opportunity to discover the challenges of today's world and to develop the motivation and the skills to face them, not only within their community and their country but also at international level.
- iii. Help young adults acquire experience and skills in leadership.
- iv. Help young adults develop their own path in life and actively plan their future.
- v. To honour the Rover Section motto of "Fellowship & Service", defined by Scouts Australia as:
Help that Rover Scouts give to someone, a community or an organisation, to further the Rovers' development, especially by using Scouting skills, ability and knowledge

1.7 FUNCTIONS

The function of BRC shall be:

To do all such lawful things as are conducive or incidental to the attainment of the Purpose and Aims of Scouts Australia, Scouts SA and the SA Rover Scout Section.

1.8 APPLICATION OF INCOME AND PROPERTY

- a. The income and property of BRC howsoever derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Aims as set forth in these Standing Resolutions and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise, by way of profit to the members of the SA Rover Scout Section.
- b. Notwithstanding Resolution 1.8a of these Standing Resolutions, nothing herein shall prevent the payment in good faith of reasonable and proper remuneration for any services actually rendered to BRC by any member or servant of BRC. Nor shall anything herein prevent the repayment of approved out-of-pocket expenses or payment of an approved rate of interest on any money lent to BRC.
- c. The provisions of this Resolution shall not apply to any payment to any company of which a member of the SA Rover Scout Section may be a member.

- e. Is removed from office by two-thirds of the other members of the Executive subject to the ratification of the BRC.

6.2 FILLING OF CASUAL VACANCIES

- a. If the office of any member of the Executive becomes vacant during the term of the elected office, the remaining members of the Executive shall within a period of 30 (thirty) days after such vacancy occurring, appoint a successor to hold that office until the next Annual General Meeting.
- b. The new officeholder shall be, in order of preference:
 - i. A Rover who shall be Registered and Financial for the remainder of the term.
 - ii. A Rover who will exceed the age range during the term. Upon reaching the age limit they must take on another appointment within Scouts SA.
 - iii. Any other Member of the SA Rover Scout Section.
 - iv. Any other Adult Member of Scouts SA.
- c. An appointment by the Executive shall be ratified at the next meeting of the BRC.
- d. If the Executive is unable or unwilling to appoint a successor the BRC may vote to leave the position vacant until the next AGM or may vote to call for nominations of people willing to fill the position.

SECTION 7 - FINANCE

7.1 DETAILS OF BANK ACCOUNTS

- a. The Executive of BRC shall instruct the Treasurer to open all accounts in the name of Scouts Australia (SA Branch) BRANCH ROVER COUNCIL.
- b. Any such account opened in the name of BRC shall only be operated by 2 (two) signatures of the Executive, signified by 1 (one) signatory counter-signing the other.

7.2 AUDIT

- a. The Executive shall appoint annually a suitably qualified person as Auditor.
- b. At the conclusion of the Scouts SA Financial year, the accounts and books of BRC shall be examined and the correctness of the Treasurer's Reports ascertained by 1 (one) or more duly appointed Auditors.
- c. An additional audit shall also take place for any reason deemed applicable by the BRC.

7.3 ANNUAL BALANCE SHEET

The Executive shall create and present before every Annual General Meeting, an Annual Balance Sheet and Income and Expenditure Statement for the Financial Year of the BRC.

7.4 FINANCIAL YEAR

The Financial Year of the BRC shall align with the financial year of Scouts SA being the year commencing on the 1st day of April and ending on the 31st day of March in each year or any such dates as decided by Scouts SA

SECTION 8 - NATIONAL ROVER COUNCIL (NRC)

8.1 NATIONAL ROVER COUNCIL - DELEGATES

- a. NRC is recognised as the governing body of the Rover Scout Section in Australia. Except where that governance may conflict with any rules and regulations of Scouts SA.
- b. The SA Rover Scout Section shall be represented at NRC by 3 (three) delegates.
- c. The Rover delegates shall be:
 - i. The BRC Chairman;
 - ii. The NRC Delegate of the BRC;OR, where one of the above is unable to attend;
 - iii. A person of appropriate experience capable of representing the best interests of the SA Rover Scout Section.
- d. The BC (Rovers) or appointed substitute is also a delegate.
- e. BRC shall be responsible for payment or reimbursement of reasonable and proper expenses that may be incurred by the BRC Chairman and NRC Delegate in relation to the attendance at NRC Meetings.
- f. It is expected that Scouts SA will fund the attendance of the BC (Rovers)

8.2 NATIONAL ROVER COUNCIL – OBSERVER(S)

- a. A Registered Rover of the SA Rover Scout Section who wishes to attend NRC as an official observer may apply in writing to attend through the BRC Executive including any request for a subsidy of their expenses.
- b. Any subsidy will be at the discretion of BRC on the recommendation of the BRC Executive

SECTION 9 - PROCEDURAL MATTERS

9.1 FREQUENCY OF MEETINGS

Both the Executive and the BRC shall meet individually at least six (6) times during the year, at such times and places convenient to the respective Members of such committees.

9.2 MEETING QUORUM

- a. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting commences. The meeting may be held but no binding decisions are possible without a Quorum. Any Unit excluded from voting under Resolution 4.4b shall not be counted towards a Quorum.
- b. The quorum for a meeting of the BRC Executive shall be in person, greater than half of the voting Members of the Executive.
- c. The quorum for a General Meeting of the BRC shall be in person, or by proxy, greater than half the total votes based on the number of registered and eligible Units at the time. E.g. 12 (twelve) Units would hold 24 (twenty four) votes so greater than half = 13 (thirteen).
- d. The quorum for the AGM of the BRC shall be in person, or by proxy, two thirds (2/3rd) of total votes based on the number of registered and eligible Units at the time. E.g. 12 (twelve) Units would hold 24 (twenty four) votes so 2/3rd = 16 (sixteen)

9.3 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING (AGM)

- a. The AGM of the BRC shall be held in accordance with these Standing Resolutions, immediately following the November BRC.
- b. The Unit Delegates, as specified in Resolution 4.3a, in person or by proxy, shall elect on the basis of 1 (one) vote per Delegate a minimum of 5 (five) persons to form the BRC Executive. Should a pre-election for Chairman have taken place, the Chairman-elect is automatically elected to the Chairman role.
- c. The BC (Rovers) or their appointed nominee shall be the AGM Chairman. The BC (Rovers) shall also act as the Returning Officer for all nominations.
- d. The method of election at each AGM shall be by secret ballot.
- e. Nominations shall open at the-September BRC Meeting.
- f. Nominations must be received by the Returning Officer no later than the close of the October BRC Meeting.
- g. Notification of candidates to all Units shall be distributed within 7 days of the October BRC Meeting.
- h. All Nominations received within the period of acceptance shall be final. The AGM Chairman may only call for nominations at the AGM for those Executive positions for which no nominations were received by the due date.
- i. All ballots shall be conducted by 1 (one) or more scrutineers, appointed by the AGM Chairman. A candidate shall not be a scrutineer.
- j. In the event of a tied vote being cast in favour of 2 (two) or more candidates, the AGM Chairman shall provide a pre-cast vote. This vote shall take place prior to the ballot at the AGM; it shall be sealed and held in confidence by a scrutineer for that AGM.
- k. The BC (Rovers) shall ensure that all matters concerning the AGM are conducted in a true and fair manner and in accordance with these Standing Resolutions.

9.4 PROXY VOTES

- a. The document for appointing a proxy shall be the approved Scouts SA form for Rover Section Appointment of Proxy.
- b. A proxy must be a Registered and Financial Member of the SA Rover Scout Section. A proxy shall not be held by any member of the BRC Executive.
- c. Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit upon any resolution put to the vote at the meeting.
- d. Appointment of Proxy Forms must be lodged with the Chairman of the meeting prior to the commencement of business at the meeting.
- e. If Unit delegates are in attendance and proxies are also lodged, the Unit will be entitled to only two votes, preference being given to delegates in attendance at the Chairman's discretion.

9.5 STANDING ORDERS

Standing Orders shall be adhered to at every meeting of the BRC.

Standing Orders are:

- a. On all questions, and during all discussion, the person speaking shall address the meeting through the Chairman.
- b. In the council a Member may not be referred to by name, but by the Unit they represent, or the office they hold.
- c. Motions can only be put to the Council by either a Unit Delegate or the BRC Executive (through the BRC Chairman). An individual Rover may not put a motion before the Council unless it is:
 - i. Moved by a delegate from their own Unit OR if not supported by their Unit
 - ii. Moved by the Executive after 4 (four) weeks prior consideration OR
 - iii. Moved by a delegate from another Unit that does support the motion
- d. The BRC recognises all Rovers rights to have opinions; however they must speak through their Unit delegates, unless recognised and named by the Chairman.
- e. Motions must be seconded by a Delegate from a different Unit before discussion is allowed.
- f. Once a motion is moved & seconded it may be discussed, amended, voted or deferred as the Council chooses.
- g. If a motion is not seconded it shall fail & may not be discussed or moved again during that meeting without the express permission of the BRC Chairman.
- h. A Member may not speak a second or further time to a question except:
 - i. During consideration in detail.
 - ii. To explain some material part of speech which has been misquoted or misunderstood.
 - iii. Having moved a motion, the Member shall be allowed a reply confined to the matters raised during the debate.
- i. Any question or subject that has been settled by a vote cannot be re-discussed at that meeting.
- j. Any business that is adjourned at any meeting shall be the first item of business to be dealt with at the next appropriate meeting.
- k. The Chairman may silence a Member in the event of tedious and irrelevant repetition.

- l. Only 1 (one) amendment to a motion shall be entertained at one time. If an amendment is carried, it shall become the substantive motion, the original motion lapsing.
- m. A Member may move without notice, and whether or not any other Delegate is speaking, that the question be now put. The motion for closure must be resolved immediately without debate or amendment.
- n. A Member may raise a point of order without notice, and whether or not any other Member is speaking, and shall state the point clearly and distinctly. The Chairman shall rule on a point of order promptly without discussion or debate.
- o. Standing Orders may be suspended either temporarily or permanently during any meeting by a simple majority of votes of the Delegates present in person at the meeting.
- p. In cases not herein provided for, the ordinary Parliamentary rules for Debate shall apply.
- q. The Chairman of any meeting of the BRC shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of these Standing Orders.

9.6 SAVINGS PROVISION

All Acts, proceedings and resolutions of any meeting of BRC or any Committee of BRC, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of 1 (one) or more of the constituent members thereof or there was an accidental failure to give proper notice, or to follow proper procedures at such meetings, will be as valid and binding as if the defect or failure did not exist.

9.7 AMENDMENTS TO STANDING RESOLUTIONS

- a. These Standing Resolutions shall not be altered, amended or annulled unless notice of motion is given to the BRC Chairman in writing.
- b. Upon receipt of such notice the BRC Chairman shall notify all registered Units, in writing as soon as possible. Units will be given at least 1 month to discuss the motion before it is presented for discussion at BRC.
- c. When the motion is first included in the BRC agenda it will be for discussion only.
- d. Units will then have further time for discussion of the motion or any proposed amendments prior to a vote being called at the following BRC.
- e. Such alteration, amendment or annulment must be passed by two-thirds (2/3) majority of the registered and eligible Unit delegates, in person or by proxy.
